

The Spiritual Leaders of Grace Cathedral and The Holy Trinity Cathedral

and the Russian and Polish Consulates invite you to join the Pacific Boychoir for

A Concert of Remembrance

In honor of the victims of the Polish Presidential Plane accident in Smolensk, Russia and

the victims of the Moscow subway bombing

The spiritual leaders of Grace Cathedral and the Holy Trinity Cathedral, along with Consulates of the Russian Federation and the Republic of Poland will join the Pacific Boychoir for a commemorative concert at

Grace Cathedral

San Francisco

Friday, April 23, 2010 at 7:30 p.m.

Honored participants include:

Bishop Marc Handley Andrus of Grace Cathedral;

the Very Reverend John Takahashi of The Holy Trinity Cathedral;

Fr. Tadeusz Winnicki, Pastor of the Polish Parish, Church of the Nativity;

the Russian Consul General in San Francisco, Mr. Vladimir N. Vinokurov;

the Polish Consul General in Los Angeles, Joanna Kozińska-Frybes

the Polish Honorary Consul in San Francisco, Christopher A. Kerosky

The performance of Russian composer Sergei Rachmaninoff's Vespers (All Night Vigil) will honor the victims of the Moscow Metro bombings and the Polish leaders who lost their lives in the tragic plane crash in Russia earlier this month. The concert is an opportunity for the people of the Bay Area to come together with local Russian and Polish communities in support, solidarity, and hope.
