"Christopher Kerosky is an excellent attorney who provides great work and achieves superior results for his clients; he is a great expert in the immigration law, extremely reliable and dependable; he is an attorney you trust, and a person who cares about his clients. I highly recommend him for anyone who needs an immigration attorney. I have been working with Chris for three years on both my citizenship case (one of those cases that "falls through the cracks"), as well as on getting status for my parents. He is one of the best experts I've met (it's not only the theoretical knowledge, he "lived through" so many successful cases). I heard his speech at a hearing. That was excellent, convincing, touching, and got the desired results! And what is very important for me is trust, and I know that you can trust him."

"I have known Chris since our first year in law school, we were moot court partners our first year. Chris and I practiced together for a regrettably short time, and since then I have watched with pleasure as Chris' career took off with the founding of his law firm and then the exciting news he had been appointed Consul for Poland. Chris is an excellent and tenacious Trial Lawyer in the grand old sense of the words, but also is keenly attuned to obtaining early and positive results for his clients by means short of trial. He is also as honorable and compassionate as they come, a wonderful family man, and I am lucky to count him as a friend."

"I am so pleased with the attention and dedication given by attorney Christopher Kerosky. He was personally involved in handling our difficult immigration situation, and was even willing to travel out of state to represent us in a challenging political asylum hearing. The case was held over for additional days, but Christopher's persistence and legal experience paid off in the end! He and his staff of competent assistants, paralegals and immigration attorneys are highly recommended."
